ALÉM DA TRELA — 10 dangerous foods for dogs

Print this checklist and keep it in your kitchen.

01. Chocolate and cocoa

02. Grapes and raisins

03. Onion (including powder)

04. Garlic (including supplements)

05. Xylitol / birch sugar

06. Coffee, tea and concentrated caffeine

07. Alcohol and alcohol-containing foods

08. Raw macadamia nuts

09. Raw active-yeast dough

10. Large amounts of salt

After suspected ingestion: call a vet immediately, keep the packaging and report the food, amount, time and your dog’s weight. Never induce vomiting or try home remedies.

Sources: FDA, ASPCA, Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine. Educational guidance, not a substitute for veterinary care. Updated November 2026.